

Introduction – Deepak Visweswaraiah

Deepak Visweswaraiah is a leader in the technology industry playing global roles based out of Bangalore, India. He specializes in leading large engineering organizations, driving innovation and bringing products into the global markets. He has extensive experience in establishing Global In-house Centers (GICs) for multinational companies. Passionate about building next generation technology, transformative approach, business leadership and mentoring startups. Recognized as “Top 50 Business Growth Leaders 2022” by BizzTalk World Conference, and for “Outstanding Leadership Award” by Internet 2.0 Conference 2022.

Global Industry Experience

- Deepak brings 30+ years of experience in the enterprise software development industry.
- Deepak is currently Vice President of Platform Engineering and Site Managing Director at Pegasystems leading the core platform organization out of India
- Most recently Deepak was Sr Vice President and Managing Director for NetApp India. While leading the world-wide Quality and Manageability Group, he was also responsible to build the new campus and lead NetApp India as one of the best places to work.
- As a global leader in NetApp, Deepak was instrumental in defining the Data Fabric strategy and drive global transformation projects across the company including a Startup Accelerator.
- Deepak was the senior director and general manager of the Infrastructure Management Group at EMC India’s CoE. Prior to it, Deepak spent 18 years in the United States working for various companies like i2 Technologies, Adobe Systems, LSI Logic, Interactive Network, etc.
- Deepak is on the Board of IACC, Karnataka, Advisory board for Zinnov and advises several startups.